PRINCIPAL

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE TO STUDENTS

Dear Students:

This school year has seen the culmination of many changes which began for Whittier several years ago. We have had many adjustments to make in our new surroundings, and I appreciate your fine attitude and cooperation in finding solutions to many of our problems.

As we continue working together in using our new facilities to their fullest extent -- let us strive to maintain the high standards established in Whittier's past.

The best of luck and success to each of you in your future.

Tristan C. Hauer

Last Will and Testament

I, Kathy Krein, will my naturally straight hair to any 7th grader with natural curly hair problems.

I, Brenda Tacey, hereby leave to some unlucky 7th grader my jammed locker.

I, Debbie Davis, leave half a bottle of nail polish to Miss Whiteman for all the hose she runs on the cafeteria chairs.

We, Claire Dubois, Martha Burlingame, and Arlyne McCarthy, leave Miss Domazet all our notes she loves to read.

I, Heidi Multog, leave all my Ban deoderant to the Whittier gym.

I, Shelley Cook, leave to all, the bathroom literacy tests.

I, Perry Williams, leave a box of chalk to Mr. Dubin, who never has any.

I, Linda Murray, will my purple exploding chewing gum to any 7th grader who needs a bang.

I, Diane Levin, bequeath all the long halls and staircases which keep me from making it to class on time, to all others with the same problem.

I, Audrey Lynn, hereby leave to all future algebra students those horrible mixture problems.

I, Lex Sare, do hereby leave to Mrs. Libman my book, "How to be a Hippie".

I, Mark Head, hereby leave to Mr. Mackenzie one plastic construction kit.

I, Craig Smith, hereby leave my locker to anyone who knows the combination.

I, Diane Findley, hereby bequeath my 43 apple cores from "George Washington Never Slept Here" to any aspiring 7th grade thesipian.

I, Mary Richardson, leave all my boyfriends to Barbara Shay.

I, Peter Miller, do hereby leave to Miss Allen all my memories of being soaked by water guns.

I, Debbie List, hereby leave my squirt gun to Mr. Mackenzie to begin another "found sculpture".

I, Pam Haire, leave to Ben Gatliff, my sense of humor.

I, Rusty Levine, do hereby leave Mr. Thwaits a basketball which cannot miss the net. I also leave owing Miss Souder 62¢ for the Coke bottles I took out of her trash can.

I, Shelley Harris, leave half a giant sweetart to Miss Walker.

I, Buddy Downey, do hereby leave a worn-out pair of track shoes to Mr. Jarman and 100 pounds of Chinese hay to Mr. Geuder for his camel.

I, Bill Smith, leave my interim to Miss Whiteman.

I, Jim Thomas, leave to Mr. Cole my Handy Dandy Tool Kit.

I, Danny Jones, leave to Mrs. Kline two broken pencils and a compass

I, Maury Saunders, leave my Play-dough, Donald Duck records, squirt gun and Mickey Mouse ears to Miss Souder for after-school enrichment. To Mrs. Libman I leave my favorite teddy bear to comfort her during her conference period. Further, I leave my Right Guard to Mr. Furbush so as to not leave him defenseless.

I, Wanda Plybon, leave to Mrs. Shriver, memories of my stupid questions.

I, Robin Medis, leave Miss Allen all my lost lunches.

I, Mercedes Acevedo, do hereby leave a Spanish dictionary to Mrs. White so she can pronounce my name.

I, Kathy Lorenzo, do hereby leave Mr. Price to Miss Souder.

I, Helene Maddux, hereby leave to Mr. Mackenzie 506 fingernails bitten off in his class.

I, Kay Rounsenell, do hereby leave one of my pigtails to Debbie.

I, JoAnn Zimbro, leave my good disposition, loving smile, and my appealing character to Mr. Byers.

I, Pat Maye, leave my paisley pants to Mr. Shriver, my Bulgarian Body Bumper to Mr. Cole and my barbell set to Mrs. Kline.

I, Lori Williams, leave all my moth-eaten books to hungry 7th graders for years to come.

I, Philip Kirby, leave Mrs. Lashbrook a package of Super Dough with Super Glow, and to some lucky 7th grader I leave my locker with all the gum and cinnamon toothpicks in it.

I, Gayle Hecker, leave my habit of always being in the office to any 7th grader who wants it.

I, Gale Glahn, will all my broken test tubes to Mr. Mackenzie who collects almost anything.

I, Sharon Utt, leave to any privileged 7th grader a pair of sunglasses to shade his eyes from the twinkle in Mr. Price's eyes when he has something fiendish in mind.

I, Lynn Schafstall, bequeath my invisible contact lenses to anyone who can find them.

REAL GONE!

I, Jim Thomas, leave to Miss Whiteman, all my noise and jumpy toys.

I, Joy Jenkins, leave study hall to Miss Griesbach.

I, Sherry Daniels, do hereby leave behind lost hopes of making the honor roll. I also leave a gas mask to Mrs. Short to wear around those who don't believe in "shower power".

I, Winifred Roy, hereby leave to some unlucky 7th grader who has Mr. Price, my nagging position.

The Yearbook Staff hopes it has left Mr. Jarman in the yearbook and fun and fond memories to all.

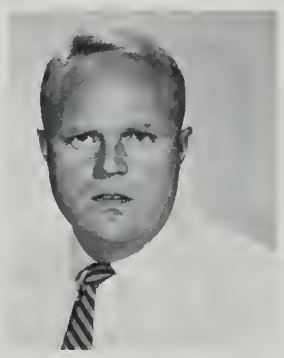
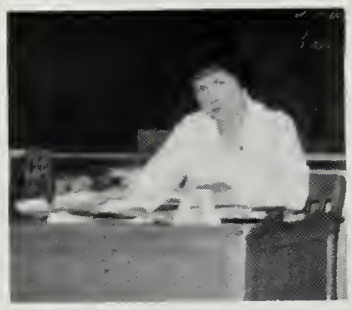
Stars in their eyes...

from: "George Washington Never Slept Here"



"AW, MUSH!"

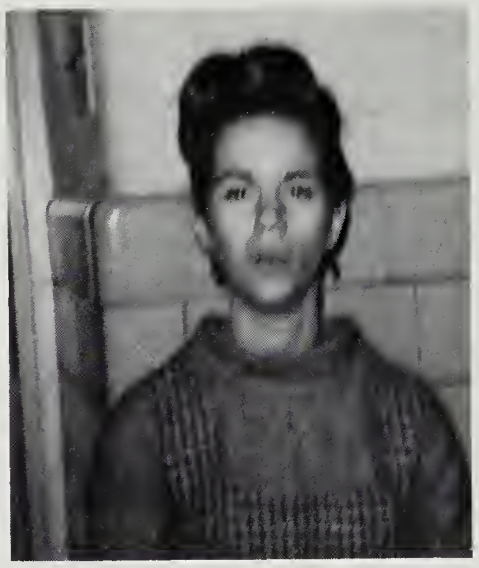
How about a nice Hawaiian Punch?



Very interesting!

"Oh, I'd love to be an Oscar Meyer Weiner..."

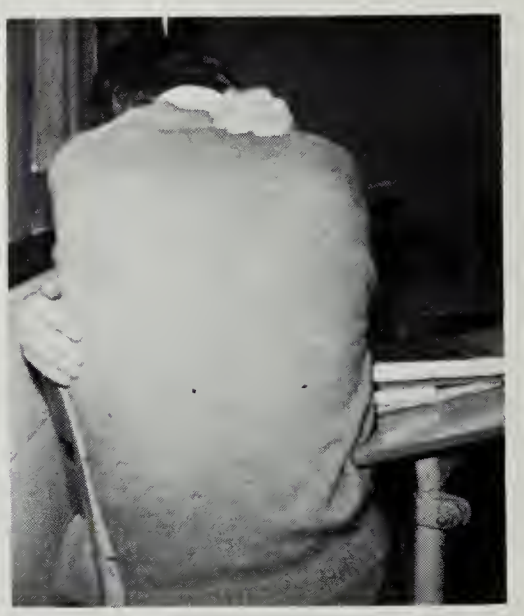
They took the Arrid and left me defense-less!



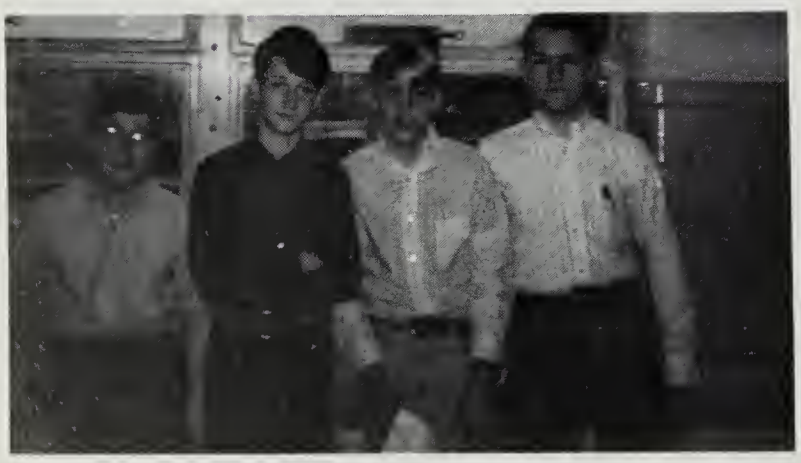
Oooooooooooh!

"I hope this makes the yearbook!"

Look into my eyes!



No comment!



Hardened criminals

Candids

Captain America

I wanna hold your hand...your nose...your ear...

Hauer Power Tower

Should a man offer a woman a Tiperillo?

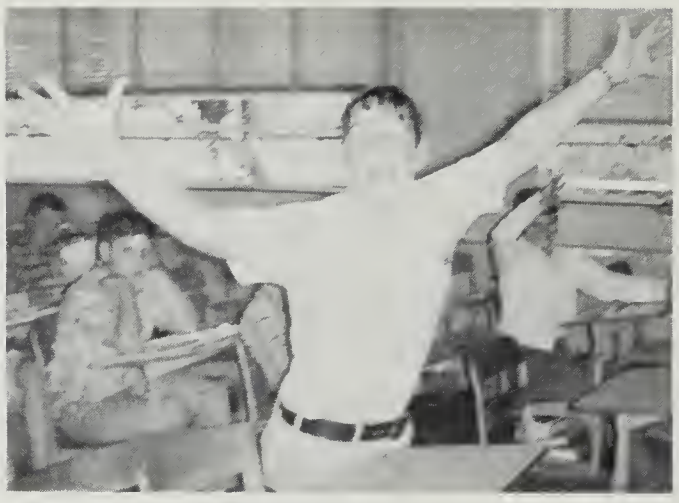
It's Sock It To Me Time!

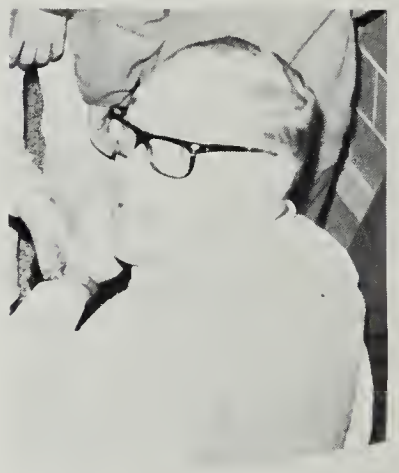
Stop! You're tickling me!



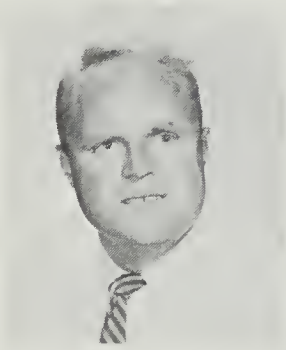
Mammy!

Hand check!

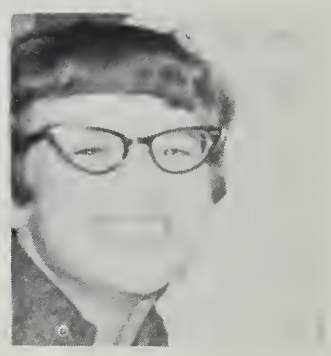
Happy Days are Here Again.



Very interesting!



We try harder.



Ultra-Bright gives your bite sex appeal!

We've got to stop meeting like this. Harold's getting suspicious!

Sock it to 'em time AGAIN???

We, the members of the yearbook staff, do hereby dedicate this yearbook to all students of J. G. Whittier in memory of the wonderful spirit which has contributed to this outstanding school year. Our sincere gratitude and appreciation is extended to the teachers and students who have helped to make this yearbook possible. We sincerely hope that you will get as much fun looking through this yearbook as we have had putting it together.

Cordially,

The Yearbook Staff
1967-68

WORKING ON THE YEARBOOK STAFF TAUGHT ME...

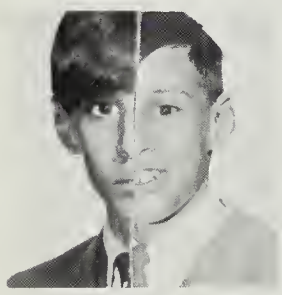
Sandy Small:... how to be a Great Leader.

Danny Sell:.... How TO TpypE

Sharon Utt:.... how to alphabetize

Nancy Samuelson:... the art of asking people what is taught them.

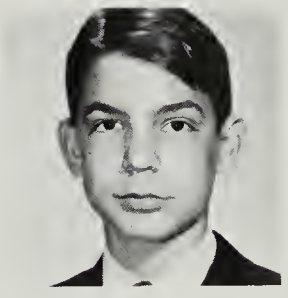
Diane Findley:. which late bus to ride home.



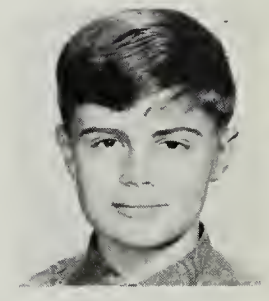
Jeff Stackhouse: how to perfect the art of stealing pocketbooks.

Helene Maddux: how to shoot rubberbands.

Kathy Lorenzo:. how to use my eraser.



Robert Arndt:... Art Editor



Robert Ein: Cover Design

Winifred Roy:.. The Yearbook gave me a very bad temper.

Are you happy now?
